Half-time

Good evening ladies and gentlemen, we present from Marion L Steele High School The Amherst Marching Comets. The band is under the direction of Christopher Barbaro and Assistant Director, Christopher Lash. Ancient Mesoamericans believed that death was part of the journey of life. Rather than death ending life, they believed that new life came from death. The Day of the Dead is an opportunity to remember and celebrate the lives of departed loved ones. Like any other celebration, The Day of the Dead is filled with music and dancing. When people dance with death, they learn to respect that life is a cycle. We present to you this evening, part 1, 3, and 4 of our competition Show.....DIA DE LOS MUERTOS.

Dia De Los Muertos is a multi-day holiday that focuses on gatherings of family and friends to pray for and remember those who have passed. As we have learned from Disney's "Coco", it is a celebration of life when the spirit of the dead visit their families for just one evening. Each household places artifacts and offerings on the ofrendas to remember and represent those that are gone. Sugar skulls represent the departed soul and is also placed on the ofrenda to honor the return of a particular loved one. We present to you, our ballad and closer from our show!

The Amherst Marching Comets would like to thank the Olmsted Falls Staff, Custodians, Principal, and Superintendent for for all their support and backing of our school's band programs. The Marching Comets began their Ohio Music Education's competition season last week as they won GRAND Champion at Akron University and was awarded Runner Up Grand Champion at the Avon Lake show later in the evening. The band was also qualified to compete at the State Marching Band Finals for the 17th year in a row. Good Luck to the MARCHING COMETS!
